going to create more litigation, you're not at all allowing for the case of the man who paid his wife directly. You're not all allowing for the man who went out and bought five winter coats for those five kids last month and five pairs of shoes the month before because his wife was sitting at the bar drinking. You're not allowing for any discretion by anybody. Now, gentlemen, forget about me as a lawyer, forget about whether you think this is constitutional. If you think that's good law and you are now a law-giver, if you think that's good law, then you ought to vote for this. If you think this is cockeyed law, you ought to vote to kill this bill. I feel that this is a good example of bad law. Now, whether or not I'm going to be successful, I question. Evidently the fact that I happen to be a lawyer somehow or other tarnishes my credentials on this subject and someone who isn't a lawyer is a well-meaning farmer who has never tried a divorce case, who has never tried to represent a woman whose husband isn't paying, who has never tried to represent a man who lost his job or whose wife is a drunk, who has never dealt with these problems. Evidently someone talks to somebody and you're able to learn more than those of us who deal with this and who have lived through these problems. Now, I'm willing to buy higher voices but not when I pass legislation.

PRESIDENT: Senator Schmit, for what purpose do you rise? He was closing and the debate has now closed.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Could I ask Senator Fellman a question?

PRESIDENT: You may not because the debate is closed. I'm sorry. The question is, shall LB957 be indefinitely postponed. If you are in favor vote aye. If not vote no. The motion is to indefinitely postpone LB957. The motion is to indefinitely postpone LB957. Have you all voted? That's correct. 25 votes to indefinitely postpone. Have you all voted?

(End of Belt 7A)

(Begin Belt 8A)

All right. Clerk will record.

CLERK: 17 ayes, 20 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion is lost. We still have LB957 on Select File. Are there other amendments of the bill or other motions?

CLERK: None.

PRESIDENT: All right. Back to Senator Cavanaugh for his motion on LB957 then.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: I move LB957 as amended be advanced to E & R for Engrossing.

PRESIDENT: The motion now is to advance LB957 to E & R for Engrossing. All those in favor of advancing the bill..... Senator Proud, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR PROUD: Well, I hate to get between these two tigers but there's....is a motion in order to bracket it?
